

2008 Slovenia Open

FEB 23 2008

(departure date of February 16th and returning 26th)

The Slovenia Open is one of the leading ITF Taekwon-Do tournaments that attracts many top competitors from Europe and all over the world.

This year Top Ten NZ is offering a package trip for interested ITFNZ members to experience training sessions with the legendary Tomaz Barada as well as compete in this prestigious tournament.

The tournament is open to all grades and provides an excellent opportunity to those who wish to experience international competition at the highest level. It is highly recommended for any student who is considering competing in sparring at future World Championships.

The package cost is $4,500 and includes the following:

- All airfares
- All accommodation
- Training with Tomaz Barada
- Entry to the tournament
